

TITLE 156 - STATE FIRE MARSHAL
MULTI-FAMILY DWELLINGS

CHAPTER 12 - ENFORCEMENT

001. When plans are reviewed by a political subdivision for building code regulations, enforcement of this title shall be mandatory except as stated in section 002. of this Chapter.

002. Plans reviewed by a political subdivision in a second-class cities or villages shall have the option to defer enforcement to the State Fire Marshal, so long as this intent is placed in writing and delivered to the State Fire Marshal=s Office prior to the date of plan submittal.

003. When no building code plan review is conducted by a political subdivision and plans are reviewed solely for fire codes regulations, the State Fire Marshal shall be responsible to enforcement of this title.

Legal Citation: Title 156, Chapter(s) 1 through 12, Nebraska State Fire Marshal

Statutory Citation: Neb. Rev. Stat. 81-5,147 to 81-5,149 (amended -1998)